

How is your Club Doing: Basic Requirements

Element	Strong	Growing	Needs Attention
5 youth from two or more families
Two or more gold level volunteers Shared youth responsibilities in decision making Educational and fun programming Six or more gatherings/meetings per year Share opportunities beyond the local club

How is your Club Doing: Sparks

Element: Sparks: (developing an interest or skill that inspires a sense of direction)	Strong	Growing	Needs Attention
Members participate in their learning
Members have opportunities to make decisions about their projects Members participate in public events that enhance their learning

How is your Club Doing?: Belonging

Element:	Strong	Growing	Needs Attention
Belonging: (a sense of security, connection and feeling valued)
Members have opportunities for social interaction with peers and families Members are recognized and appreciated in multiple ways Youth feel included and connected to their club community

How is your Club Doing: Relationships

Element:

Strong

Growing

Needs Attention

Relationships: (a trusted relationship with a caring adult that fosters youth development)

Youth have supportive relationships with leaders and other adults

Clubs regularly assess individual progress and group goals

Members experience mentorship and encouragement from multiple adults

How is your Club Doing:- Engagement

Element:	Strong	Growing	Needs Attention
Engagement: (active pursuit of individual learning and development) Youth serve in leadership roles within the club.
Youth are involved in community activities that provide service to others.
Youth consistently take part in planning, organizing and evaluating club experiences.

How is your Club Doing: Awareness

Element:	Strong	Growing	Needs Attention
Awareness: (young people are aware that they were engaged in a 4-H program)
Members and volunteers routinely display or reference 4-H symbols (flag, clover, pledge) during meetings and events
Members can describe how their club helps or contributes to the community

Michigan State University Extension programs and materials are open to all without regard to race, color, national origin, gender, gender identity, religion, age, height, weight, disability, political beliefs, sexual orientation, marital status, family status or veteran status. Issued in furtherance of MSU Extension work, acts of May 8 and June 30, 1914, in cooperation with the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Quentin Tyler, Director, MSU Extension, East Lansing, MI 48824. This information is for educational purposes only. Reference to commercial products or trade names does not imply endorsement by MSU Extension or bias against those not mentioned.

Persons with disabilities have the right to request and receive reasonable accommodations. Accommodations for persons with disabilities may be requested by contacting <insert name of office contact> at <insert telephone number> by <insert date> to make arrangements. Requests received after this date will be fulfilled when possible. (Please allow no less than one week for short programs and no less than one month for overnight programs.)