

Berrien County 4-H Recognition Handbook

TOP 10 REASONS TO APPLY!

- To receive recognition for your accomplishments.
- To learn and practice how to complete applications.
- Your 4-H accomplishments look good on college, scholarship, and/or job applications.
- To help build self-esteem.
- To help build confidence.
- To increase awareness of our 4-H Youth Program.
- To document your 4-H achievements.
- To meet new people.
- To broaden your horizons and experiences.
- It's fun to be recognized by your peers.

Purpose and Eligibility

The purpose of this handbook is to create an awareness of opportunities and awards offered to youth and adult volunteer leaders in the Berrien County 4-H Youth Program.

To be eligible, members must be actively enrolled in a 4-H club that is in good standing as verified by the Berrien County MSUE Office. This includes the club's enrollment records, financial statement, Civil Rights Statement, participation in annual fund-raiser, etc. Some awards only require a nomination from the member's club coordinator. Others require recommendations and an award application. Leaders and parents are encouraged to assume an active supporting role in helping 4-H members complete their applications, but the work and applications are to be completed by the member.

Adult volunteer leaders must have completed the MSU Extension Volunteer Selection Process and be in good standing as verified by the MSUE Office, excluding the MI Emerald Clover Society and National 4-H Salute to Excellence Volunteer Recognition Awards.

Submission Details

Award nomination forms and applications can be submitted via:

- ✓ Faxing to 269-944-4128
- ✓ Dropping off or mailing to Berrien County MSU Extension Office (1737 Hillandale Road, Benton Harbor, MI 49022)
- ✓ Electronically to the Berrien County MSU Extension Office

All submissions are due no later than

September 22

Berrien County 4-H Recognition Handbook

SELECTION PROCESS

First, the purpose of the award is made known, what it does, etc. Second, requirements to qualify for the award are made known- age, years of club work, etc. Third, the applicant's information is studied- does the information meet the purpose and is the member/leader qualified? Fourth, the awards committee may request to interview applicants.

The Berrien County 4-H Awards Selection Committee may include community partner involvement depending on the award. The Awards Committee may be composed of active project and resource leaders, club coordinators, teen leaders, and staff as advisors (when appropriate), which represent our diverse, overall, 4-H community. Adult volunteer leader recognition opportunities are selected differently for each award.

- Outstanding 4-H Leader Award recipients are chosen by the Berrien County Outstanding 4-H Leaders Committee which consists of past Outstanding 4-H Leaders.
- MI Emerald Clover Society nominees are submitted to the MI 4-H Foundation for selection of inductees.
- National 4-H Salute to Excellence Volunteer Recognition Award nominees are submitted to the MI 4-H Youth Development Office for state selection. State winners are forwarded for regional and national selection.
