What is 4-H?

- ◆ 4-H is a community of young people across America focused on learning leadership, citizenship and life skills.
- ◆ 4-H is a fun, hands-on (currently do to Covid-19 all programs are virtual) learning experience.
- ◆ The traditional 4-H program is open to youth 8-19 years old; the Cloverbud program is open to youth 5-7 years old.
- ◆ 4-H is open to all youth in all communities.
- ◆ 4-H is supported by caring, adult volunteers.

Michigan 4-H Youth Development has seven guiding principles that provide the foundation for the education methods, activities and events that positively affect the lives of our youth. These guiding principles are:

1. Youth develop positive relationships with adults and peers.
2. Youth are physically and emotionally safe.
3. Youth are actively engaged in their own development.
4. Youth are considered participants rather than recipients in their learning processes.
5. Youth develop skills that help them succeed.
6. Youth recognize, understand and appreciate diversity and multiculturalism.
7. Youth grow and contribute as active citizens through service and leadership.

Studies show that 4-H members:

- ★ Do better in school
- ★ Are more motivated to help others
- ★ Feel safe to try new things
- ★ Achieve a high sense of self-esteem
- ★ Develop lasting friendships
