

Clare County 4H Council Meeting

October 26, 2022

Erika Schunk, Melissa Muma, Ursula Jehnzen, Rebecca Jehnzen, Jonathan Jehnzen, Faith Jehnzen, Donna Thompson, Michelle Krell, Corrie Aldrich, Cynthia Dietrich, Jennifer Dietrich, Miranda Warmuskerken.

Meeting called to order at 6:35pm. Pledges and introductions done.

Treasurers report given. Motion to approve by Cindy, support by Corrie.

No printed minutes from last meeting.

Budget passed out, discussion, motion by Donna to approve, support by Corrie. Council by laws passed put to anyone needing them.

Camping deposits are due now through March 1st to reserve your spot. New fair enrollment forms were emailed out to all members on file. Paper forms are due to fair office by December 1st for returning members and April 1st for new.

Bouncing Bunnies and Galloping Goats are hosting a first aid/CPR knowledge class on December 10th, 9:30am-4pm. Limited to 25 kids. They have asked to get a grant to cover the cost of registration for the kids. Donna made a motion to reimburse Bouncing Bunnies and Galloping Goats up to $500 for the enrollment fees, Erika supports the motion.

Next youth leadership council meeting is November 9th at Eagle Church of God.

Properties- working on new by laws to go to the lawyer. Gardening- all needs cut down, pots by milk booth taken care of. Awards-committee met, sending out letters, suggestions for new/different awards discussion in January/February. Banquet- Thursday November 17th at 6:30, at the Poet outdoor center, cupcakes and water provided. Ambassadors- Cindy is interviewing on Nov 7th. Motion by Cindy to allow more nominations until Nov 2nd, support by Donna. Milk booth- reaching out to Shawna to get her to some meetings, Ursula and Jonathan have volunteered to help on this committee. Fundraising- flower sale in May. Holiday craft fair- tabled for further discussion.

Melissa made motion to start meetings at 6pm going forward, support by Corrie.

Adjourn at 8pm.