

2023-2024 Young Achievers Award Nomination
Eaton County 4-H Youth Program
(For members with a 4-H age of 8 – 11)

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

1. Nominations to apply for an award may come from your 4-H leader or you may self-nominate. A leader signature agreeing to the information in the application is required.
2. Please neatly type or use black ink. Check spelling and grammar so form can be more easily read. Please use complete sentences.
3. If member was nominated in more than two areas, member must choose which two areas to apply for. Member may only submit two applications. A 4-H member can receive the Young Achiever award in one project area per year and cannot receive the award for the same project area more than once.
4. 4-H members do not have to exhibit the project at the Eaton County Fair to qualify for an award. Members must be currently enrolled in the project in 4-H Online.
5. The county awards committee will select the winners and awards will be presented at the Participation Celebration Banquet.
6. Every question must be answered. Not applicable (N/A) will not be accepted as an answer.
