

Jackson County 4-H
Gale Todd Youth Volunteer of the Year Award
Application Cover Sheet

The Gale Todd Volunteer of the Year award recognizes 4-H youth age 8 and up that give back to the Jackson County 4-H program.

- Over the course of the program year (September 1 - August 31), you are asked to track your volunteer hours for the county program.
- A list of pre-approved events can be found on the Jackson County 4-H website at <https://www.canr.msu.edu/jackson/4-h/newsletters-scholarships-and-awards>
- Each time you volunteer, please fill out the tracking sheet and have the event coordinator and date the completed form.
- Completed application and record sheets are due to the Extension Office by November 1 immediately following the end of the program year.
- Scholarships in the amount of $500* for First Place and $250* for Second Place will be awarded each year as appropriate.

NOTE: Volunteer hours cannot be used to count for multiple volunteer requirements (for example: volunteer hours for Horse project requirements cannot be used for Volunteer of the Year hours)
