4-H Life Skills Self-Assessment

This assessment was created to evaluate your current leadership and life skills, to better determine what areas 4-H staff and volunteers can assist in your personal development. Applicants score does not determine eligibility for the program – our team wants to get to know you better!

Review each element and on a Scale of 1 to 4 self-rate your current ability.

- 1=Beginning to develop this skill (I need help),
- 2=Proficient (I can do this skill with some support),
- 3=Advanced (I can do this without help),
- 4=Expert (I can do this without help and teach others)

Please write a brief response to the following (100 word minimum):

“Because of 4-H I can...”

I understand that if I am chosen as a Livingston County Ambassador, I will be expected to meet regularly. I will do my best to attend meetings, activities, and will communicate with adult leaders and 4-H staff. The following events are typically hosted by Ambassadors:

- Fowlerville Family Fair 4-H Game Night
- County Awards Night
- Winter outreach event
- Spring service project
- Monthly Meetings – Meeting schedule to be determined at the June 4-H Council meeting.

I understand that I need to read and respond to communications in a timely manner regarding attendance and/or participation in events, and that I will participate in at least two events and 6 meetings.
