

Additional County Awards:

- Sportsmanship award – individual award that recognizes youth for behaving in a fair and respectful way towards other 4-H members, emulating the 4-H principles, and always being willing to lend a helping hand. To recommend someone for this award, you will need to send a write-up about the individual, on how they have shown these traits, to Sunni at haglun10@msu.edu, by the first Tuesday in September.
- Above and Beyond award – Individual award that recognizes youth for continuously showing others the true attributes of a 4-H'er, and for ALWAYS going above and beyond. To recommend someone for this award, you will need to send a write-up about the individual, on how they have shown these traits, to Sunni at haglun10@msu.edu, by the first Tuesday in September.
- Teen Leader award – Individual award that recognizes teens who set a good example to younger 4-H members, being a true leader within their club/committee. To recommend someone for this award, you will need to send a write-up about the individual, on how they have shown these traits, to Sunni at haglun10@msu.edu, by the first Tuesday in September.
- If you have any other youth who you feel did an amazing job throughout the year, and you would like to recognize them, send Sunni an email with their name and what you would like to recognize them for.