

CLOVERBUDS NOTEBOOK INSTRUCTIONS

Horse notebooks are designed to give 4-H members a tool to learn more about their horse project and horses in general.

4-H members may be as creative as they like. Notebooks may be in a 3-ring binder, scrapbook style, or whatever effectively displays the required information. Each year, the notebook will be added to. The current year's information will be in the front with a divider between each year. Several of the Cloverbud activities require the use of the premade page, this can be pasted into the notebook however you like. Remember, neatness counts.

A table of contents must be included as the first page.

A scoresheet must be in the front of the notebook

Reference all sources used while completing the notebook.

Members may use the following resources:

- 4-H Horse Science Book

- 4-H Horses and Horsemanship Book

- Local Library/Horse Magazines

- Internet

Be sure all information is accurate.
